Rule 7.1: Grounds and Procedure for Removal

- a) Whenever it shall appear that any member of the County Committee, Executive Committee, or State Committeeperson is charged with not being a qualified Republican elector, or opposes iris about to oppose the Republican Party or any of its candidates, or neglects or refuses to attend to the duties of the office, the County Chairperson shall appoint a committee of three (3) qualified Republican electors to investigate such charges. The committee shall notify the person so charged the time and place of the hearing, and if upon investigation it finds such charges to be true and correct, it shall so report in writing to the County Chairperson.
- b) In the case of a member of the County Committee, or Executive Committee the County Chairperson, with the approval of the Executive Committee, shall declare the office vacant and appoint another qualified elector to fill the unexpired term.

Rule 7.2: Removal of Officers

The elected officers of the County Committee, except the Chairperson, may only be removed from office by a two-thirds majority vote of the County Committee membership (or their proxies) present and voting, providing that notice of proposed action has been given in a written notice of the meeting.

Rule 8.1: Amendments Procedure

The foregoing Rules may be amended from time to time by a two-thirds vote of the members present (or their proxies) at any meeting of the County Committee provided that notice of the proposed amendments to said Rules has been given in the written notice of the meeting.

Rule 8.2: Suspension of Rules

Any rule or rules may be temporarily suspended at or during any meetings by the affirmative vote of seventy five percent, in person or by proxy, and voting at such meeting for which a quorum existed.

Rule 9.1: Severability

The existence of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Election Laws and Rules of the Republican Party of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are hereby acknowledged with the expressed intent that these Rules shall supplement rather than supersede those Laws and Rules. Whenever there is a conflict between these Rules and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Elections Laws, or Rules of the Republican Party of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the more stringent shall prevail. If any section, subsection, clause, phrase, or portion of these Rules are for any reason held invalid or unconstitutional by any court or regulatory agency of competent jurisdiction; such portion shall be deemed a separate, distinct and independent provision and such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion thereof.

Rule 10.1: Adoption and Repeal

These Rules are hereby adopted by the Republican Party of Susquehanna County, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. All previous Rules of the Republican Party of Susquehanna County, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are hereby repealed: except that the present County Committee Officers and members of the Executive Committee shall remain in office until their successors are duly chosen or appointed in accordance with these Rules.

As specified by the Election Code, the Rules shall become effective on the date that a certified copy of the Rules is filed with Susquehanna County's Election Board.
